“ I am actually writing my personal message to 'Pawpaw". Wanted to let you know that we miss and love you so much already, and you just left us Friday afternoon. I'm not real sure how we are supposed to gone on with our family with out you here with us? I feel that this is going to be the start of many heartaches for us!

It doesn't seem real. Went to the house yesterday, wasn't the same without you being there! I can't even began to explain how I feel! You were more to me than my Pawpaw, you wore my dad too!! I don't know what Candice and I are supposed to do in this life without you or maw maw?? Ya'll have been with both of us all our lives!!

I am forever grateful that you came up to my house and stayed with me and kids the night before you left this world! I love you Pawpaw, and I'm pretty sure that you knew (or had a feeling) that your time had come and you were ready to go. But you didn't leave without giving me the opportunity to tell you "I love you" one more time, and fix you one more good ole' home cooked meal, and see your great grand-babies one more time. I love you Pawpaw....I know you are looking down from above; there isn't a doubt in my mind, God knew your heart and that you meant well with good intentions!!

If you can, shine a lil' light down on us to help us get through all of this! Give mawmaw a lil' sign, you know how she is, she needs something to know that you are alright. Watch over us and keep us from harms way just as you always have!

Til I see your face again; I will go on living in this world everyday with part of my heart missing! No one will ever take your place in our lives! I thank God for you and all years he gave me with you!
