“ Miz Bea was a spirited southern belle and a fine Christian lady. A memory I have is a fun trip to Myrtle Beach with Bea, my sister Pat and our friend Irene. Bea wanted to visit a resort where she and Harris had stayed many times. So that's where we stayed. The four of us had a great time. She will be missed by her dear friends in Buford. RIP Bea.

*We are saddened to hear of sweet Bea Broome's passing. She was a faithful Christian and it was always good to see her at worship. Our memory of Bea and Harris Broome goes way back when Bob did the lawn maintenance on the church property. He could always depend on them to turn the water off for Bob since they were close at hand. They saved Bob many extra trips so the lawn could stay green. We loved Bea and Harris.
