“ Linda and Larry and family, we truly are sorry for your broken hearts. We are thankful the Lord promised us to be absent from this body is to be present with the Lord. Our hearts goes out to the family. A wonderful thought in knowing; it's not goodbye, it is only "good night" and you will meet her again in the morning. We know you must be thankful God has blessed her with a long life. We are praying for the God's comfort for you during this sad time. Our love and prayers goes out to all of you. Linda, our hearts are broken for you and we know God is the only one who can mend a broken heart. We love all of you! Our continual prayers are for you.
