“ Our hearts break knowing you were taken way to soon Betty. However, we know God has his own timing when we are all called home.

I'm thankful for all the years you and my brother Rocky shared. I am even more grateful that you both tied the knot last year. What a beautiful wedding it was. Richard and I are thankful we spent last year with both of you visiting us in Florida.

We had such a great time.

Sending prayers of comfort and strength to your children, friends, and extended family during this most devastating time. You will be truly missed.

“ My heart breaks selfishly for me but I know where you are. Sunday standing in your driveway, a cardinal showed up and that was you mom telling me you are alright. I’ll miss the encouragement you always gave me and I hope that you will guide me through the rest of this life. Save a seat for me and tell God I don’t need a mansion with streets of gold. I just need to be on a dirt road close to you! I miss you and can’t wait for the day we meet again.
