“ I've known Billy since the day he started working at the Chevron long before it became a Chevron. Him and my dad were really really good friends and we lost my dad 9 years ago I remember Billy telling us he wants dads silk Tommy Bahama beach shirts. He watched me grow up and have kids. We always picked at each other and gave each other a hard time, most times making each other laugh almost to the point of tears. I'm gonna miss hearing him shout "he Frank Jr" or "whatcha want you ol bat-a-lac". Billy was truly loved and respected and definitely one of a kind with his friendship and loyalty and he will be truly missed. Give my dad a hug for me and y'all don't go causing too much trouble up there! Love you old man!!!

“ Billy was a true gentleman and a friend of nearly 10 years. I would stop in the store and see him at least once a week. He always had a genuine smile and greeting for me and we often had time for a chat. I will miss him as a constant presence in my life. He was warm and kind and caring. He made a difference in the the lives of many people. I love you Billy.

“ I met Billy when I used to frequently stop in at the Chevron on my way home. I was glad to see him and he always greeted me as a friend. I lived in the neighborhood behind Chevron and several times we took him plates of food from various celebrations we had at the house. I think he truly appreciated that we thought of him as a friend. After I moved away my neighbor would stop in and he would ask how I was doing. He was a generous soul and will be missed.

“ Billy was my one and only friend. A true friend. He was always concerned with my health, my life and he also loved and respected my children. He said he had the pictures of my girls on his refrigerator. It was so nice to go into the store and see his smile. My husband of 46 years enjoyed talking with Billy. If Billy wasn't to busy, he would walk me to my car and make sure I was safe. I loved him. I will miss you Billy. We all will. Nobody can replace your friendship and loyalty. See you on the other side "Kiddo". My heart is truly broken. God Bless You.

“ I will always remember how he would pick at me when I would come visit my Aunt Jewell. We would laugh at each other like crazy.
