“ May Jehovah God comfort you during this time of loss. Though there may be little that can be said or done to ease your pain, may you find comfort in knowing that many care and sympathize with your sadness. Always know that Jehovah God is with you to strengthen and guide you. May your trust in his promise of a resurrection bring you peace. - Acts 24:15

“ Please accept our condolences on your dear loss of your loved one. Our Loving God promises to soon destroy this great enemy of mankind real soon (Isaiah 25:8)! Then we will truly enjoy life with those we love so dear the way God originally purposed (Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:9-11). May such wonderful promises, soon to be a reality, comfort you and your dear family in the days ahead.

“ Dear Ben, Lisa, Billy, Larry, Margaret, Linda, Pat, Debra, and extended families,
We are saddened to hear about Bob's passing but happy to hear how he loved our Lord, Jesus, and longed to go home to be with Him. Each of you are in our prayers and thoughts. Bob was practically grown and working by the time I was old enough to get to know him and my 'older' cousins. I remember him as a kind soul, always caring and considerate of others. As I reflect back, I recall My dad and mom (Spurgeon and Thelma Tullis) spoke highly of Bob and his courteous mannerism and positive outlook on life, as well as all of their nieces and nephews, my cousins. The last time I saw Bob was at my moms funeral and I don't believe his personality had changed a bit since the days I knew him with us all growing up next door to each other as kids. Those were good days. Better days await those who love the Lord and will keep His ways. I guess Bob is the first of our little band of cousins who gets to experience those 'better days' first. Heaven is rejoicing! I look forward to seeing him again someday. If friends knew Bob the way I remember him, he surely made positive impacts on many lives and will be missed by many people. May the Lord bless each of you with comfort during this time, and the opportunity to celebrate Bobs life by sharing some good stories about him with each other.

“ *Dear Pat, Billy and family,
You know how much I loved Bobby and we were so close growing up. Bobby was my best friend when we were in high school and were next door neighbors. The memories I have of you all is precious and I will always cherish them. I tried to stay in touch with Bobby (Bob) and we chatted every once in a while. He always spoke about his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and how much he longed to be with Him. I think Bobby was one of the true Christians of our day. He was truly in love with his Savior. I think he is happy now to be with the LORD and he often told me that was his desire. He had very little for this old world and longed to go home to Jesus. I will cherish our friendship always and will look with hope to the day when I will see my dear friend again. Our prayers are with you all now. The LORD be with you all, now and always. Amen
