“ Precious Evelyn and family,

I'm so very sorry for your loss. My prayers are certainly with all of you and will be in the future. I never met your son; but I heard of your loss through my sister Shelby. May God bless and keep you all.

*Love and prayers,
Linda*

“ Brandon shall be dearly missed. We have always thought of him often, as one of the kids, and we shall remember him fondly. his love of music, movies, his political beliefs and above all the love he had for his family. He befriended our son and he endeared himself to us all. We pray peace for him and his family.

“ *B.P.,
I still can't comprehend the fact that you are gone. I am thankful that our lives crossed, and especially thankful for the friendship that you and my brother Andy shared. I don't think I have ever laughed harder or longer than when you two were together. From the time you said "na sport" to the popped collar kid at school, to the orange spraying your face. (Perhaps only Andy and I know why that is so funny) That was the Brandon I will remember. You will be missed but not forgotten.*

“ Once Brandon got to know you, you very quickly understood that he was a caring, respectful and insightful young man. A big heart and a kind disposition.

The kind of man we all hope to raise on our own. A thirst for knowledge and in subjects he had a passion for, unrivaled in his knowledge to share with you.

As an employee of Mack's for four years he was loyal and trustworthy and never found an enemy. He was always boasted upon by people that had just visited the store for the first time. He made my life easier being there, and I was always comfortable knowing the company was safe.

Words cannot describe the personal devastation and loss I feel. I loved Brandon like a son and will have a hole in my heart always. Our soon to be annual golf tournament has just changed names to the Brandon Parnell Memorial Challenge.

Thank you for allowing me into your life son.

Goodbye

I just wished I had told him more often how much he meant to all of us at the store.

“ It's hard to know what to say, especially when there are more questions than answers. What I do know is that I will always remember Brandon as one of my best friends. People wish they could have more time with the one's they love, but perhaps that is selfish of us. We should learn to accept and be grateful for the short time we do have, however hard it may be. I always called Brandon "Brother Brandon", because that is what he was to me, a Brother. I will miss you.

“ Brandon was our adopted little brother at the cigar shop. We are truly blessed to have been a part of his life and to share some of his passions; be it a critique on a new cigar, a discussion on the latest book he read or an in-depth movie review. We deeply miss you Brandon and please know that you touched our hearts in so many ways. We pray that you are peace.
