“ I want to offer my condolences to the Franklin family and friends. Our Heavenly Father knows the pain you feel from the loss of your love one. He did not purpose his human family to die but to live and enjoy life forever. This is still his purpose (Psalms 37:11, 29). He calls death an enemy that will be removed forever along with all pain and suffering__ 1 Corinthians 15:26; Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Notice his promise to awaken all those in the memorial tombs from asleep in death~__ Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live ...Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust! ...the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." What a delight it will be to see them again! Allow these words to keep comforting all of you.

“ Sheryl, I am very sorry to hear about Brenda's passing. I know that this is a very difficult time for you all. Even though many years have passed since I met her, I still feel close to her, because you are still close by, in my heart. I will most definitely pray for you and the family, asking God to send comfort your way. I love you all like a second family. May God comfort you all. Janie Savage

“ My sincerest condolences to your family. Losing a loved one is extremely difficult. We long for for the time when we no longer have to experience the pain of loss. (Revelation 21:3,4) Until then, May the "God of all comfort" be with you during this difficult time and May you find peace in His promises and in your loving memories. (1 Corinthians 1:3,4)
