“ Uncle Carl was one person who was made to drive a school bus. He had his mother's personality, always calm cool and collected. Such an easy going man. I was in the Gwinnett County schools system and although I didn't ride his bus I would run to his bus and get a hug every chance I got. He was my favorite. The same every time you saw him. Overalls and all. The world lost a good man. I'm sorry girls for the loss of your father. You were very lucky to have him.

“ Linda, & Ann, I am so sorry for your loss of your dad. But he is with aunt Gertrude now. He is sleeping and resting now. I will miss him. I can remember us going to Florida with him and aunt Gertrude. I would ask him are we there yet he would say not yet. That was a long trip. I love them both it is hard to believe that they both gone but we will see them again one day. Love you.
