“ Dear Carm, I am so sad to see you go, but so happy to see your body released from your pain. Maybe God figured you had fought long enough .and hard enough, and that he would call you home and give you peace.

I will remember you as someone I could always call om if I had a problem, and most times you furnished a good solution, be it businsee or personal.

I just know that you are up there right now organizing God's Paper Clips (Inside Joke)

You very a precious one of a kind Lady. They broke the mold after you. I am so thankful for the privilege of knowing you and working with you for so many years. It is my honor to call you " Friend"

You were a shining example of God's love and Faith,you brought a brightness into the lives of people who did not know God.

Rest in Peace sweet Carm.Fly with Angels. We will all miss you.
