“ Heaven will be a joyous reunion with all those who have gone to heaven before us and Kay's witness and desire was to have all her family and friends and even strangers to make that destination a reality. She was a bright and shining star that lit up a room with her joyful laughter and sincere love and care for all who God put in her path. Celebrating her homecoming and praying for strength and comfort for her loved ones. John 14:18 "I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you," Loving our precious memories of Kay that we treasure and we thank God for giving us that gift of her friendship. Buster and Edith Puckett
