“ I don't think that Caroll was just a friend to anyone who knew him, I always felt more like family in his presence,he will be missed, Heaven gained another angel. his name is and was mentioned in our home several times in any given day...he was the kind of man that was loved and enjoyed by all from the our four year old grandson who looked forward to Caroll coming over on his golf cart to taking him for a ride as well as my 10 year old grand daughter and her memories will include each liter of kittens she would pick her favorite and name it. my thirty something year old sons and so on. he was precious to all that knew him..he just had a way of being your family instead of a neighbor... i am very gratefull to have known this wonderful man
