“ Dwight and family. We are so sorry to hear of Caroline's passing. We are sorry we could not be there. Our thoughts and prayers to all.

She was always so nice and kind to our family. Our mom walked to your store and food stand more times that I could count and she always seem to add extra to her purchase.

Thoughts and prayers to you all

“ To Damon and all of Carolyn's children and grandkids, Carolyn was a wonderful person and was truly kind and gentle to everyone. No matter how she may have been feeling her attitude and outlook was always the same. You were fortunate to have had the love of this lady.

“ Carolyn Will definitely be missed in Hiawassee Ga. She was such a sincere and caring person and friend. She was always calling just to check on Ms. Linda Hooper, and how things were going. Not just for business purposes, but sincerely cared how we both were doing. It was a pleasure to work with you Carolyn. And one day we will meet again! Much love and prayers for the Braswell family as they lay this beautiful soul to rest, as I'm certain she went above and beyond to make them all feel loved and cared for! Ms. Linda Hooper, and Kim Pardue (Linda's in Hiawassee Ga.)

“ Carolyn was one of the first businesswomen I ever knew. I learned to tie my shoes at Pop's Place. She always had a dog by her side, and I knew she loved all of them very much. She would let me play with them because she knew I did not have a dog and wanted one. I will never forget her or Pop's Place. My deepest sympathies go out to Dwight and the family.
