“ I worked with Carolyn at EMS and Worshipped with her at Freedom Tabernacle for a time.
What a precious Soul. And a sweet husband and daughter Myra.
The whole Family is just extraordinary, and Miss Carolyn is a Very big part of it all. RIP until we meet again!

“ I remember the tales my mom, Mary Frances, and Carolyn would tell me about their younger days. They were always up to something. One of my favorite things they shared was that since Carolyn was a good bit younger than the other kids - that my mom would take her on dates with my future dad, Billy, so that Carolyn wouldn't feel left out. My mom thought of Carolyn as a little sister, and she looked out for her - Mary Frances loved her greatly as do we all. I always loved it when Carolyn would be telling a story and she would cock her head and proclaim - well it's the truth now ain't it - with that wild mischievous look in those sparkly eyes of hers. You had to be happy around her - you just couldn't help it. How blessed are we because we had her in our lives!

“ What can you say about someone as special as my Aunt Carolyn? She was a bright spot in our family and we all loved her dearly. Her smile, her laughter, her hospitality, her love and care for her family is immeasurable. We will miss you more than words can express, but we know we will see you again. Rest in sweet Peace until we are all together again one day in the great bye and bye.

*Love,
Allison*

“ My first date with my future wife, Allison Whitt started and ended at “Aunt Carolyn’s house. Little did I know that many, many more dates would end up there over the next two years. I would sit and talk with Carolyn and Samuel while Allison, Myra, and Anita would practice (they sang in a trio) together back then. Visiting with Sam and Carolyn was always like hanging out with family. Carolyn always held a special place in my heart, and I will always love and miss her.

What can I say to Cousin Samuel, Myra, Anita and Jonathan? "I'm sorry" can never convey my thoughts and feelings at Carolyn's passing. She lived as an example for us all and will be missed forever. Her life has said it all!
