“ I have been neighbors with Cecil and Mildred for quite a few years. We have property and a home behind their property and Cecil would come by to see how things were going "back here" as he'd say, and inevitably we'd end up chatting for awhile about anything from chicken farming to racing cars to politics or faith. I enjoyed those times and will miss them very much!
I admire how Cecil loved his family, friends and neighbors and how he never met a stranger. He and Mildred are some of the kindest and sweetest people I've ever known. We will miss Cecil, his smiles and jokes and wisdom and just knowing he's here.

“ I met Cecil some 42 years ago, a good Christian man who knew the way to Our Lord and Savior was through prayer and living as Christian a life as we are capable. We shared a mutual interest in all things Automotive related, especially NASCAR style stockcar racing. Attending Car shows and going to races with Jimmy Willard and his boys all over the southeast and WINNING was the norm for over a Decade, what an experience we all had. I'd like to think I learned a little bit about life from ALL the friendships I've made over time. I give Cecil credit for always contributing to and being optimistic about the outcome of all the competitions we were in back in those days, and for his truly caring for his fellow man & friendships as long as I have known him. I know he called and checked in on me to see how I was doing over the years. I want to share that during our last conversation Cecil expressed a real desire to spend his Eternal life in God's Heaven, so in my mind that's where he now resides for all eternity. Rest in Peace Cecil.

“ I shared many miles with Cecil going to the Street Rod Nationals spending about a week at the show and swap meet. Some time Todd would drive one of Cecil’s cars. Mildred and Todd and the Breedlove family are all in our prayers. Cecil will definitely be missed by all that knew him.
