“ Chad you are a beautiful soul. You will always hold a special place in my heart. He loved to joke around, scare people especially Pam. Her blood hurdling scream would just make him he laugh so hard. His great breakfast that he would always make on Saturday mornings. We would just veg out and watch movies all day. Of course they had to be scary, with all the lights out. Pam and I would cover our face. The many adventures we would do together will always be with me. The love he had for his family and friends especially my sister Pam. They had so much love for each other. You always were there to cry or laugh with. This is not goodbye but see you later.

“ It has taken me a few day to try and think of something to say and the truth it I still can't. I adored Chad. Often times when we were together, he and I would wander off and joke about being the black sheeps. The cruise we took together if you looked for one of us- you could find the other. I will miss him, dearly. Thank you for all the laughs, Chad. The ones that made my stomach hurt and tears roll down my cheeks. Rod, Vicki, Brad.. I'm so sorry. All my love.

Rod, Vicki, Brad, and to all the extended family members...we simply do not have the words to express our deepest condolences. Like Chad, you know we love you and it tears our heart out to think that you are suffering this way. We are here for you, always have been and always will. With all our love.

Today I was looking at my friend Chad Coopers obituary and a great sadness came over me. Such a unique beautiful individual, so happy God brought him into my life if only for a moment and made me smile and laugh. You were such a pleasure to be around and I will forever remember you your friend "E"

“ Chad I love you big! You were there during one of my hardest times in my life & the best time. You were definitely the kick in the pants that I needed, although I think you liked doing it too much, lol You were always the life of the party, the best party planner, you were & are simply THE BEST!!! You will always be in my heart.

“ Chad was unapologetically determined. He applied and interviewed for a senior accountant position at Softe two different times. The first time he was so nervous and his cologne spoke louder than he did, but his second interview made all the difference! Always early to work, amazing work ethic, positive, fun, and those faces! He had the ability to turn every, otherwise bad situation, into a memorable experience. No matter the circumstance...he cracked us up...quick wit, SMART, mean “guitar hero” who adored his family and his dear dachshund . A truly unforgettable, beautiful soul. You are so loved.

With admiration,

“ I worked with Chad at Softe for many years and want to pass along my heart felt sympathies to family and friends that knew him; if even for a short time. I will always keep my memory of Chad close to heart and will miss spending time laughing at stories of work time and personal times. He will be greatly missed.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to all of Chad's family and friends. I first met Chad when he was two years old when Peter (my then fiancé and Vicki's cousin) and I went to visit Rod & Vicki. Chad was adorable and full of energy and had that engaging smile which he apparently never lost. Chad will be missed deeply. Gone way too soon.
