

Chadwick Jason Watson

November 22, 2019

Chadwick Jason Watson, age 45, of Cumming, Georgia, originally from Easley, South Carolina, died on Nov. 22, 2019 from the development of a third astrocytoma brain tumor. Chad was a 1993 graduate of Wren High School, Piedmont, SC and received his B.S Degree in Business Administration from Lander University, Greenwood, SC. He was employed by House of Raeford Farms and was serving as their Western Regional Manager at the time of his second brain tumor resection in 2012. Chad was a resident at Annandale Village, Suwanee, GA from 2015-2019 and a member of the Christ Church Suwanee, Georgia.

Chad is preceded in death by his mother, Ann Adams Watson. He is survived by his father, George T. Watson, (Jan), brother, Duffie B. Watson (Kim) two nephews James and Lucas, and many other wonderful family members and loving friends.

The memorial service and "A Celebration of Chad Watson's Life" will be held Sunday, December 1, 2019 at the Windermere Golf Course Clubhouse, 5000 Davis Love Drive, Cumming, Georgia from 2 pm-4 pm and visitation with family and friends after the service.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that contributions be made to the following organizations that Chad so loved: Annandale Village at <https://annandale.org/> donate, Christ Church Suwanee at P.O. Box 4006, Suwanee, GA 30024 and

“ I don't think there are enough words that begin to describe the wonderful, inspiring man Chad Watson. I am so thankful for the time I got to know Chad - he inspired me and reminded me how important it is to live every day to the fullest and appreciate each moment. I am so thankful for Chad - never have I known such a kind, happy, positive spirit. He will be missed but never forgotten.
