

Charles Olin Clark

March 5, 1937 - December 8, 2025

Charles Olin Clark, lovingly known as “Olin”, “Daddy”, and “Pop,” passed away peacefully on December 8, 2025, surrounded by family. He is predeceased by his father, Julius Wesley Clark and mother Oda Fay Moore Clark, five brothers and two sisters.

An avid fisherman and gifted craftsman, he was known for his love of the outdoors and for the beautiful, lasting work of his hands. His legacy of hard work, gentleness, kindness, and devotion to family will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. Olin retired from Delta Airlines.

Olin was born March 5, 1937 and shared a beautiful life with his beloved wife of 69 years, Beverly Meers Clark. Together, they built a family rooted in love, faith, and the simple joys of time together. He is also survived by his children: Chuck Clark (Pam) and Cindy Byrd (Barry). Olin was a proud grandfather to: Jessica Tiller (Cory), Brooke Barnes (Andrew), Justin Clark (Kaela), David Byrd (Katie), Kristin Van Asch (Joel).

His joy multiplied even further with his great-grandchildren: Mason Tiller and Charlsie Tiller; Jacob Barnes, Brennan Barnes, and Drew Barnes; Dansby Byrd and Georgia Byrd; Brooklyn Van Asch and Beckett Van Asch; and Caden Clark.

He shared his passions freely, and many of his family members will continue to inherit and enjoy the traditions he passed down – especially time spent at the beach or fishing and the handcrafted treasures from his workshop. These good times and cherished pieces, and the memories made around them, will continue to testify to his love and skill for generations.

We will celebrate Olin's life on Saturday, December 13, 2025, at the First Baptist Church of Buford (4550 Hamilton Mill Rd, Buford, GA 30518). A visitation for family and friends will begin at 1:00 p.m., with a Celebration of Life directly following at 2:00 p.m.

“ Olin was one of the greatest of men. He and Beverly were such great friends. He was so wonderful to help my husband build Dickens at Heritage Christian Church (One Church). There aren't enough words to describe what a gentleman Olin was and I know he will be greatly missed.

“ Olin was one of the most humble men I had the privilege of calling a friend. He said little but if he was asked to do anything he would immediately respond. I remember once we were walking out of Primetimers and I had noticed a small table in the ladies restroom had a loose wobbly leg and I took it out to Olin and he immediately picked it up and returned it the next week as good as new. And he fixed some loose legs in some chairs for me personally as he knew my John was no handyman. I am so glad to call him and Beverly dear friends and shared many good times, and Beverly's delicious cakes with them. Rest in peace and see you on the other side. Pat Hancock
