“ Met Charlie many, many, years ago at Mableton 2nd Baptist Church in Mableton, Georgia. From the first day I walked thru the church doors, he was so welcoming to me. I'm glad he and I reconnected on facebook a few years ago. He was one of a kind with a very special Christian loving heart. I know he will be missed by many. I will never forget him.

“ Oh wow, I could go on and on of my many lifetime memories of Uncle Charles. He was always my favorite Uncle, even though I would call another Uncle my favorite....well, that only happened when he told me one of my cousins was his favorite niece. Those that knew him, knew he was Always a jokester. I loved him dearly. In one way he was almost like an older brother, mainly because he lived with us in his early adulthood, and after he married and had children, I would go to their house and babysit or just go play with his children. Uncle Charles was a very fun loving man, and he loved his Lord. for sure. I know he is resting in Heaven, where he has longed to be, and his health has all been restored. To my cousins, May God be with you and give you Comfort knowing he is watching over you and to Jeanette's family, I know Uncle Charles is sooooo Happy...seeing His Lord and Savior and his Jeanette. God be with you all...I Love You, Uncle Charles. Thank y'all for taking good care of him and loving him so much. Sandy

“ We thought so much of Charlie and Jeanette! These two were a couple you never forgot once you met them. Even though it is sad for those left without them here on earth, we rejoice knowing these two are reunited with our heavenly Father.
