“Joyce and family, We were saddened to hear about Chuck. A good friend and a great competitor in golf. My first round at Summit Chase was with Chuck was a Wednesday in 1981. I had never seen a hole in one. Chuck hit it long on 16 and backed it into the hole. Will never forget.
RIP Chuck
Thank you for being our friend.

“Some individuals have a gift of unity. That was one of Chuck's blessings. Nobody was a stranger in their home. In his unassuming quiet way, and adding his quick wit, Chuck embraced a conversation with the hospitality of a seasoned diplomat. He just loved people! No generosity was too big. He had time for everyone. I imagine at this moment, Chuck is spreading his loving and caring spirit throughout Heaven. We, here on earth, have already been blessed by Chuck's time with us.
