

Chris Boulware

June 7, 2018

Christopher James Boulware, age 24, of Townville, SC, formerly of Buford, GA passed away Thursday, June 7, 2018. Chris Boulware passed away Thursday, June 7th, 2018. Chris attended Buford City Schools from kindergarten to graduation in 2012. During his time at Buford, Chris participated in many activities including athletics. He played baseball, football, and was a state placing wrestler, achieving championships ranging over all sports. After high school, Chris graduated from Lanier Technical College with a degree in Fire Sciences. Most recently, he held a position as a risk-management consultant at Palmetto Insurance in Anderson, SC.

Chris had an extreme love for all his family, friends, and animals. He loved to make people laugh, enjoyed cooking, and appreciated being outdoors. He lived a vibrant and meaningful life that positivity affected the lives of those around him. Chris was loved by many, both family and friends alike. All who knew Chris, loved Chris, and adored the time spent with him. Their lives will forever be marked by his lasting presence. Chris will be greatly missed and never forgotten. Those left behind will forever cherish his spirit. Chris is survived by his father, Jim, his mother, Kathy (both of Townville, SC), and his sister, Stephanie (currently living in Denver, CO), his grandmother, Alma Drennon (of Summerville, SC), and his many aunts, uncles, and cousins from all over the Southeast. A Celebration of Life service will be held on Thursday, June 14, 2018 at 3:00 p.m. in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home with Dr. Mike Boulware officiating. The family will receive friends on Thursday, June 14 from 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m.

“ My heart is heavy and sad with the news of Chris's passing. I met Chris on a cruise several years ago with my daughter and was impressed by how well mannered and mature he was for his age. So grateful to have met this fine young man. Rest In Peace, Chris. Hopeful you have been reunited with your parents. ??
