“ Thinking about you today bud. I really really need you to be looking down on us all right now. I know and believe that you are. I'm really struggling here lately with you not here. I have to remind myself it's just your body that's gone, but your soul is living on. Id give anything to see you again 😭 I love you Christian

“ Hey bud... I just wanted to light a candle this morning, to let you know how much I love you, And how much I miss you 😭 words cannot describe the pain that I have from you leaving... I will be coming to visit you at your resting place soon. I have an arrowhead to place on your headstone. It will help guide and protect your spirit! I know you are looking down on us, but man, I really really miss you. I would give anything just to see you riding your bike and pulling in my driveway if you would see me out there, and talk to me, sometimes for hours like you used to.. they're good memories that I will always cherish! I love you so much my precious nephew ❤️

“ I cherished the special times I spent with Christian, a truly tender-hearted young man. Our rides to and from FPC Buford gave me precious insights into who Christian was. One evening, on our way home from church, he shared with me, “I wanted to be a preacher all my life,” with such a huge smile and sincerity that touched my heart.

1 Timothy 3:1 says, “If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.” I believe Christian desired good. I watched as he worshipped with the truest heart, responding to God in seeking repentance with tears and worship, and following with being baptized in the only saving name, the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins. I thank God for that.

I also thank God for Jared Jonsa at FPC Buford, who invited, loved, and prayed for Christian. Everyone who met Christian at church speaks highly of him. God blessed us with Christian. Our prayers are with his family now and in the days to come.

I have no doubt that the young man who wanted to be a preacher all of his life would love to know that even in this most difficult of times that he preached to those he loved the message of seek and obey the Lord. In doing so find the sweetest blessing you'll ever know. He loved church, he loved that life. He told me several times when talking about his family and a young lady friend, "they are coming, they just don't know it yet". He loved you with a pure love. I pray even in this loss he is preaching as his heart desired so much!! I love you Christian, thank you for allowing me to be a part of your life.

“ My dear nephew. I am lighting a yellow candle today in memory of you. The meaning behind the yellow candle is sunshine, and warmth. It can also create a sense of positivity, and optimism. Something we all need right now. The yellow is often a beacon of light during difficult times. So this yellow candle is for you bud! I love you so much

“ Christian, on this day I just want to say how much that I love you. You were and always will be a light in my life. I'll just never forget every single time that I saw, you always told me (and Josh too because he was always with me lol) that you loved us. You told me happy birthday on my birthday, and picked me that beautiful flower! And it was funny because you literally made me take a picture of that flower! I still have it. It was the best birthday gift that anyone could ever have given somebody, to me it will forever remain precious in my heart

“ Our hearts are breaking for all of you. We can't imagine this tragic loss! I will always remember the years of baseball and the season that Tara and I were the Team Moms of the opposing Mtn View Pony teams and decided to have our season-end party together - one that the boys talked about for years! Or the summer that Covid had hit so Coach switched us to Travel and had us going all over N GA! And Tyler will always remember playing catch to Christian's pitches (they made a good pair!) and goofing around on and off the ball field. That boy will be MISSED! We're sending all of our love, hugs, peace, and warmth to blanket you...

“Love y’all “ it’s exactly the thing Christian would tell us every time Kayla and i would part ways from him, whether he was out for a jog , playing some basketball , or just stop by bc he’d see Aunt Kayla outside he would always tell us “love y’all” at the end of every time we had an encounter and I’ll forever cherish that . We Miss you buddy . May you forever rest in peace young man ! You were one of a kind, and a good kind might I add . Thank you for being you , taking up for my little sister before , and just you being an amazing good hearted person and it was a privilege to have known you ! You’re a special young man , and will always be in our hearts. Love always and forever- Josh and Aunt Kayla .

“ To the family of Christian, this is Jaylin's grandmother. I'm sure you guys remember him. He spent so much time at your house same with Christian at our house. I always enjoyed having Christian around. He and Jaylin are very good friends. I am so sorry for your loss. I can't imagine what you were going through. Your entire family Are in my thoughts and prayers.

*Miss Teresa. This is Kayla, I am Christian's aunt. Thank you for sharing this. I'm pretty sure that you are the lady who came into my store, at Harbor Freight, the Sunday after the funeral. If not then just disregard this, but if so, I believe we live in the same neighborhood as well.
