“ Chris taught me how to play guitar 14 years ago as a 12 year old. He was the beginning of that journey but always did with with a smile and gentle words. I'm sure he would be proud that one of his students went to do great things. Thank You

“ I have always felt at times like this there is so little anyone can say, for there are no words that have ever been invented to fit the loss of a loved one.

There really isn't very much that friends can do or say, except extend their sympathy to all of you today.

And tell you that they're hoping it will comfort you somehow to know that they are there with you in heart and thought right now.

As I sit and type this tears rolling down my face I want you to know that I will miss you my dear friend. Wish I had a chance to see you or talk to you one last time. I will always remember the memories we shared together.

REST IN HEAVEN MY PAESANO I WILL MISS YOU VERY MUCH

Love Always Your Paesano Serina Carr

“ Dear Susan, Josh, and Sarah,
I am so sorry for your loss. Chris was such a special cousin. He always made me laugh growing up and I have so many fond memories. Daryl and I had such a blast the last few times we got together. It was such an honor to spend time with him when he came to visit in Cleveland. I am so relieved he is not suffering anymore and that he is in heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
Love your cousin Michelle

“ Sue and family,
It is with mixed emotions that I send love and prayers for Chris' you. As we will miss Chris on this earth and the pleasure he brought to so many, we also know that, "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." And it doesn't get any better than that. Someday, we will join him. For now, Lord, I pray for peace for his family.

“ Dear Susan, Joshua, and Sarah,
I grieve with you in the loss of Chris. He was the epitome of a gentleman and he touched my life profoundly in many ways. He was never without a smile; he was honest, friendly and talented. What a winning combination! All around me I see reminders of his many kindnesses - lots of things from Hill, but also I carry fond memories of singing songs while he played guitar and his overall zest for life. May God bless and keep you, especially during this difficult time.

Love,
Lisa
