“ I will miss him so much..I met chris through playing video games.we became very close..very fast..I always. Told him that he was my other half cause we were so much alike..I also got the chance to meet him and spend time with him..my only regret would be that I didnt spend more time with him..I'm from alabama and he was from Georgia..which made it hard..and then eventually we lost contact with each other..he was my bestfriend and always will be..I love him and it makes me sad that I couldn't be there for him..maybe I could have been there to comfort him cause I know that deep down he was sad jus like me. and we always knew how to make each other happy ..he.was my favorite person to play with online..he made. me laugh and taught me many things about life love and .how to love myself. I will miss him like crazy and still.continue to love him like he's right here beside. me...rock. on chris...you'll always be in my heart

“ Dear Shelia,

I am so sorry that this has taken so long for me to write. I know we have talked together about our sons so many times. And together we know of their pain. I know as well as my son that Chris was a beautiful but troubled person. Chris was as sweet as could be to everyone but so hard on himself.

I have been reading lots of Bible verses this weekend to find the right one to comfort you and let you know Chris is in a better place. I found several but the one I like most is Revelations 21:3.

"I heard a loud shout from the throne saying Look, God's home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever."

I think that's the life Chris has now that's why he had such a pleasant look upon his face. He was such a good soul God did not want him to suffer any longer. I know nothing can mend a Mother's broken heart but I do hope this can help in some way.

*Love you girl,
Friends forever,
If you need me I'm here,
Susan Johnson*

“ Dear Shelia,
I was SO saddened to read this morning of Christopher's passing. It brought back memories of him and Angela calling you while they were growing up when we worked together at Holiday Inn...how the years have flown by. My deepest sympathy to you all. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. May he rest in peace and may God give you all peace as well.
