“ The Journey of My Life
It was beautiful as long as it lasted, the journey of my life.
I have no regrets whatsoever
save the pain I'll leave behind.
Those dear hearts who love and care ...
and the strings pulling at the heart and soul ...
The strong arms that held me up
when my own strength let me down.
At every turning of my life I came across good friends,
friends who stood by me
even when time raced by me.
Farewell, farewell my friend.
I smile and bid you goodbye.
No, shed no tears for I need them not.
All I need is your smile.
If you feel sad do think of me for that's what I'll like.
When you live in the hearts of those you love remember then, you never die.

“ I want to offer my condolences. Losing a loved one to death is the hardest thing for us to endure. Please know that "the God of all comfort"(2 Corinthians 1:3,4) can help your endure. I pray for your comfort.

“ My condolences to the Sadler family. It is a painful thing to lose a precious love one in death. Even Jesus wept when Lazarus died (John 11:35) and it pains our loving Heavenly Father, too. He did not purpose his human family to die, but purpose us to live and enjoy life. It is still his purpose (Psalm 37:11,29). He calls death an enemy that will be removed forever__ 1 Corinthians 15:26 "the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." He promised to awaken our love ones in the memorial tombs from asleep in death__ Hosea 13:14 "From the power of the Grave I will redeem them; from death I will recover them." He will then "satisfy the desire of every living thing" (Psalms 145:16). What a delight it will be to see them again to enjoy life as our Creator purposed! Allow these words to keep comforting all of you.
