

Ciro "Jerry" Pecora

January 26, 1935 - January 29, 2025

Ciro "Jerry" Pecora, beloved husband, father, and devoted grandfather, passed away peacefully on January 29, 2025 in Braselton, GA, at the age of 90. He was born on January 26, 1935 in Philadelphia, PA to Ciro Gerard Pecora and Anna (Restaino) Pecora.

Jerry is predeceased by his parents and brother Robert Frank Pecora, and survived by his wife of 52 years, Diana Pecora of Buford; children David (May) Pecora of Cumming, Victor (Tammie) Pecora of Villa Rica, Jennifer (Josh) Kurland of Suwanee and Anthony (Elizabeth) Pecora of Waxhaw, North Carolina; grandchildren Julia Pecora, Nicholas Pecora, Jacob Kurland, Madeleine Pecora, Michael Pecora and Zachary Kurland.

Jerry served honorably in the US Army in Korea. He then returned to his home in Philadelphia until he relocated to New Jersey in the late 1950's. He played minor league baseball for the Cleveland Indians organization in Chattanooga, and later worked as a business executive for both the Whirlpool Corporation and Eureka.

Jerry loved New York City! Loved working there and enjoyed everything "his city" had to offer. He was an avid New York Yankees and New York Jets fan. If you knew him, you were made very aware that in 1969 he witnessed Broadway Joe beat the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III.

He was a force and a very passionate man. He worked hard, played hard and loved harder than anyone else. Jerry's pride and joy was his family. Whether it was going to dinner, traveling and dancing with his wife or watching his kids, and now grandkids, cheer, ride horses, play football, baseball and hockey. He loved and adored his family more than anything in the world.

Please join us in celebrating his life on Sunday, March 2nd from 12:00pm – 3:00pm at the Windermere Community Clubhouse located at 4444 Front Nine Drive, Cumming, GA 30041.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the following organizations:
