“ We will miss our dear friend. His sweet spirit brought joy to so many. His WWII service was critical to the survival of a great nation. We bid him "smoothseas and following winds" on his journey through the eternities.

We offer our love and sympathy to terri & shawn, and all of his family.

We have a perfect knowledge that he is now in a better place with his sweet wife and family.

Sorrow will pass, as you fill yopur hearts with joy recalling your many wonderful memories of his life and your part in it.
