“ When I told my family members of Clifford's death, each began to cry. He wasn't just a plumber or handyman, he was our friend. He was always there for us, always with a smile and a story or two. We will miss him so much. Dennis and Martie Zakas and family.

“ *Dear Jason,
Your dad, Clifford was so much more to our family than words can ever fully express. We thought of him as a member of our family for as long as I can remember. He was Mark's lifelong friend. He was an uncle to the kids, another son to our parents, and a second brother to me.
Quite simply, we loved him. He made us laugh. He had an opinion on everything and he loved a good debate. No matter how busy he was, he always took the time to call us back. He was there to comfort us when our dad died and helped us as we stumbled through the grieving process. He was there to sit with us in the hospital waiting room during Mark's surgeries. He was a loyal and steadfast friend.
In my idea of heaven he is riding his horse in an open field now, or walking dogs with my dad; entertaining him with his stories. I think I'll keep his number on my phone, so I can call him again if I ever need to. I know he'll pick up.
Sincerely,
Mary Moffit Draper*
