“ I was Cody’s 6, 7, and 8th grade teacher at Glen C. Jones Middle School. Cody was such an energetic and happy young man. When Cody moved to Mill Creek High School, he and my son were on the same wrestling team and I truly enjoyed watching Cody wrestle. I knew he was destined for big things; my heart goes out to his family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Always smiling! The last time we spoke, you were telling us stories about your son - your pride and joy! How many times did I pass your house on the way to Kroger, and I would see you laughing and talking in the front yard! It always warmed my heart! My fondest memory was that of you turning left onto Cross Road and waving at me and my puppy on our way to the park - you flipped open your helmet so I could see your smiling face and waved so I could recognize you. Who knows why God has taken you at this time? I can only imagine He may possibly be training Angels to ride Motorcycles! Prayers will be going up every time I pass your house for you and your family, because you are missed tremendously!

“ Cody (my other son)

On the day you were born, I helped deliver you and from that moment on I have loved you like you were mine. I watched you grow up to become a handsome young man. My heart is breaking for the loss of such a beautiful soul. You touched so many lives in so many ways, you had a way of making everyone fall in love with you.

Scottie and I love you like you were our own son, and losing you hurts us to the core. I will cherish every moment watching you grow up into the wonderful young man you became. You will forever hold a special place in my heart, and you will never be forgotten. What I will miss the most is hearing you say come on Miss Terrie give me a hug, I will miss all the hugs and love you gave.

Until we meet again my son Fly high we love you so much. Love Terrie and Scottie Peppers

I honestly am lost for words Cody.. it just seems like yesterday we were all racing down 53 or you coming to the little house to wake us up at the butt crack of dawn. You had to much to live for and I can't believe Gods taken you from us. However I know your no longer suffering or in that dark place. Boy , you're gonna be missed..

Cody Cody Cody he was definitely one of a kind always smiling and making others smile. He loved riding his motorcycle. He was such a happy camper, if I wasn't smiling or laughing when I seen him then I got sure was by the time I left and was always very polite to me. You will surely be missed Rest Easy My Friend.
