“ Conley "Ceeman" Earls was a person that you become a better person just by talking with him. A better player if you play with or against him. I enjoyed the time we had together playing basketball, and also I got to reconnect with him when he was coaching my nephew years ago. He was a Gentle Giant, and a Humble man. God Bless the entire family and extended family of this awesome brother in Christ. Till we met again Cee, I love ya!

“ I was saddened to hear of Coach Earls passing. Prayers go out to the Earls' family. He was truly an amazing individual "gentle giant", whose love for children was evident whenever you crossed his path. His legacy lives on through his daughter, family, friends and countless students/athletics. Coach Earls will be missed but never forgotten.

“ Oh my...I'm hurting, so I know Conley's immediate family is struggling with this devastating loss. You'll be in my prayers. Hopefully you can find some solace in knowing that Conley touched the lives of so many people. Conley was there for my family and me when we lost Uncle George. I'll never forget his support. Conley was a lifelong friend, schoolmate, and fellow athlete. I will cherish the memories. RIP "Cee-man built like He-man!"

“ So sorry for your loss. Death is such a enemy of all humans. One thing that brings me comfort is scriptures from the Bible. There we find the hope that we will be reunited with our dead love ones based on John 5:28-29. We can have confidence in this hope because he has done this in the past (John 11:39-44) and he is eager to do it again (Job 14:14-15). God actually hates death as brought out at 1 Corinthians 15:26. I hope that these few scriptures have brought you a source of comfort as they have myself. If you would like more comforting scriptures from the Bible like these or would like to learn why we grow old and die you are welcome to visit JW.org. Once again, I'm sorry for your loss.

“ Earls was a really good friend and teammate of mine. He was like a brother to me. We would swap cars at Mississippi, and hang out and crack jokes all the time. He was a great guy. I thank God that I made the trip back to Mississippi State Peach Bowl reunion in 2014, and got to see Conely again after 18yrs. It was like we had just seen one another a few days ago. Lots of laughs and fun. RIP my brother.

“ Conley was my roommate and teammate, you talking about a great guy. That was Conley, he would give you his last. He didn't want to see no one without. He had a truck and that truck was all of our truck. He didn't know how to say no to anybody that was in need. When I would talk to him he would always talk about his daughter first and then we would talk about his parents, which he loved dearly. Brother I will miss you. Love you forever!!!

“ Got the news today, still can't believe he's gone. I hate that we didn't get the chance to hang out and reminisce on the good old days. I always considered Conley a true friend, someone I looked up to in many ways. Hard to believe he was taken at such a young age. I'm so sorry I can't be there, but for all his family you're in my thoughts and prayers and may God help you all through this terrible loss. Cee-Man, I'll see you again some day, until then, I know you'll be watching over all of us. Love you brother... Sincerely, Jeremy Greeson and family.
