“ Nancy Davis
I first met Joe in the late 60's. He was a best friend to my ex-husband, Bennie Watson. In the early 70's, he became my brother in law when he married my sister Arleen. That is how we have our wonderful Jeni in our lives. I have many, many memories with Joe. I loved him and considered him my friend. I will miss him, but I am so happy he no longer suffers and is in a better and happier place. My heart is with you, Jeni and Ken. Love you both 🥰🥰🥰

“ I met Joe back in 1989 and we have been friends since then. I remember him cooking southern for me. Missed his fried cabbage creamed corn and corn bread. We had lots of shared memories from over the years. Kept in contact by phone after I moved back to Missouri at the end of 2001. Joe was part of my family while I was in Ga. Will miss his phone calls but glad he is no longer in pain and in a happier place now. RIP. Nancy

“ I have such fond memories of my Cousin Joe and his kindness to everyone. He always made us laugh and gave us a big hug at the family Mother's Day Dinners at the Atlanta Water Works. May he rest in peace in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. 💔🙏
