“ May family and friends find comfort in God's promise of a resurrection of all those lost in death that are in his limitless memory. His promise is a guarantee because it is impossible for God to lie. God will wipe every tear from eyes and death, mourning, pain and sorrow will be things of the past. (Revelation 21:4).

“ Dear Cavin Family, I am Amy Gravitt's Aunt. I did not know Craig very well and had only met him a few times. He impressed me as a very kind and responsible person and he seemed to really care for Amy and her family. I'm sure if the Lord had not decided to take him home and I could have gotten to know him better that I would have loved him as much as I do her. God asks us to accept things that we cannot understand and Craig's passing is certainly one of them, but He is always in control and knows best. Definitely gone too soon!! I am so very sorry for your loss!!
