“ Curt had the gift of an unusual mind - curious, hungry - and the will to use it for his own pleasure: to discover. Together we unfurled clouds in the mountains in California, listened to Richie Havens play "Here Comes the Sun" at dawn and Jimi Hendrix play the Star Spangled Banner at midnight on the 4th of July at the Atlanta Rock festival (with 23 Woodward Academy friends), adventured in NY and DC.. worked on a Piper Cub in the garage with his dad, then flew in it together. When I left for France he sent me off with Skip Lake's painting of a girl with a guitar, saying, "you won't come back." I stayed more than 14 years. When, after even more years, we met again, he had refined the unexpected turn of his wit, enhanced it with the ability to mix Proust with primitive painting in a single observation. The power of an independent mind is a burden to those who expect it to conform, a delight to those who benefit from its dreaming. I am grateful to have been part of some of those dreams.

“ I am so saddened to hear of Curt's passing. He and I had some very good times back in our youth, sadly with the passing of time we parted ways. My thoughts and prayers go out to Curt's family, and may his soul rest in peace.

“ So sorry to hear about Curt, even though i'm no longer a member of the "Dunn" family, i thought of Curt alot over the years, and have missed talking to him and his visits to me and Hal's house. I know Hal will be very upset about his cousins passing. Our hearts are with you. God Bless.
