“ Our family sends our thoughts and prayers to the family in their loss of Daiviet. He and my son were great friends throughout many years of school and afterward. We have fond memories of Daiviet coming to spend evenings at our home playing video games or going to the movies with all the guys. There was always a lot of laughter in the car when I drove them. Daiviet was always sweet, funny and polite and I know this is a great loss. Please know that we are thinking of you all now. Lila Kelley, Jackson Adams and family
