“ *I am so very sorry for your loss. Damon has been a wonderful friend to my son for so many years. He was always welcome in our home and we truly enjoyed having him around. His wit and humor made us laugh and we always had a wonderful time with him. May you find comfort in knowing he was loved by so many.

“ *Wendy & Kelly,
I am so sorry to hear about Damon. It breaks my heart. I remember watching him & Kelly when they were so little and have thought of you and the kids so often over the years. You all are in mine and my mother's thoughts and prayers. Much love to all, Gretchan & Carolyn Cowan*

“ I remember you sitting in the back of my classes, never saying alot. I passed you in the hall, I always said hello and you would nod your head. You reminded me of my youngest son and everytime I saw you it brought a smile to my face. The very last semester as I passed you, you would say hey back. I will always remember that smile kinda to the side that I seen and all the stories your mom told in class. You will always be a part of my heart as well as those who knew and loved you. Heaven is a most glorious place, look down on your mother and I pray that she finds peace knowing that you are watching over her.

“ Wow. There are no words. I remember all those crazy times with Damon and his friends at school... I cannot ever begin to know your pain Wendy and family.. I cannot be there but I am praying so much.. I know that does not begin to touch the loss and pain... He was such a special boy, then young man... I won't ever forget the silly touching things he did. I wish I could be there!! Please know Lindsay is doing her best to get there... It's been a while but it doesn't change friendship. With much love and prayers. Kathy hambrick

“ There are no words that can really describe how sorry I am for your loss. No parent should have to bury their child. Just remember that he no longer has any worries and surely he will find Mom on the other side to help him wait for you. We love you, Teresa
