“ My first memory of Dana is my best. He was funny and friendly. I don't think he ever met a stranger. We started talking like we had known each other for years. He had a smile that started in his eyes and lit up the room. There wasn't a subject he couldn't speak intelligently about, and he wasn't afraid to share his opinions. Thing is, he was mostly right. My condolences to you Lianne. I love you and will be praying for your peace and comfort in this time of grief.

“ Dana also took pride in his Scottish heritage and would say he's related to the 17th Earl of Erskine. He was quite the character and could talk your ear off. He could tell stories like no other. I was hearing new stories of his early years even after 37 years of marriage!!!
