We are all saddened by the passing of our beloved friend and coworker Daniel Sepe is like ratatouille himself who always perfecting himself everyday, from food to things that he needs to know ,he asked questions if he need to educate and stop when he perfected it, no swollen head exist even he is older. Always bringing food that he cook for all, always sweet and encouraging. Very responsible and think about his family first, no matter what. He is Always there if you need a helping hand which a lot of his close friends felt the lost of a loyal company. We believe that Dan is in heaven now smiling and happy even we cannot be with him but the memories will stay and lingers in our hearts and souls. We will miss you Dan. God bless you and your family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Dan for several years. After a long night on a 12 hour shift Dan would put on the best music and turn it up as we finished our shift. From Barry Manilow to Barry White I always left work with a smile. He always thought of others like cooking his famous noodles and sharing with all his coworkers. Dan will be missed greatly, may he rest in peace. My condolences to the Sepe family during this difficult time.

“ Dearest, Sweet Uncle Danny,

My last, live remembrance of you was that wonderful gesture of yours when you brought to reality your desire to see your living brothers then, together again. My apologies for not having photos available right now (can't readily remember, senior na rin!). But it was a joyous moment for you, and for everyone. Flying home to Manila has always been part of your plans every so often. And you would make it a point to see us. And although not expected from guys, you would bring little gifts for us and would always give Daddy something to spend on himself. That's just you. Good, kind, generous. Not to mention so good-looking, which runs in the blood of the Sepe brothers!

Yes, that was you, so full of life and energy! Which is why i was so shocked to tears learning you have passed on -- really thought you'd still recover. After all you were still so young. But God did not have a better plan, He had the best plan for you: Lift you away from this too troubled and sick world! Perhaps you have completed all He has purposed you to be. I am just so, so glad we are sure of that eternal life you have now. So glad there was that day in your life you accepted Jesus Christ as your Only Savior, and started a relationship with him that grew deeper each year.

I will miss our occasional chats over Messenger, Uncle. I will keep in my heart how so fondly you cared for Dad, the "Kuya ng lahat" of the clan, especially when his condition was getting worse. Well you two must be jumping for joy there now together with all our loved ones there hopefully...

Till i get there, love you much Uncle, Natalie (Talie to you)

Deepest, Warmest Condolences to us all! Virtual hugs to our relatives, to Dan's side of the Sepe Clan! <3 <3 <3

“ Dan was the best coworker anyone could ever desire. His work ethic was impeccable. He always greet you with the biggest smile that just set the tone for the day.nd it was a bonus when he shared his wonderful cooking. He will be sorely missed. To his wife Mary and his children, please know that Dan left a positive impression on many people. We could only hope to be remembered in half the light that he is remembered in. I take comfort knowing Dan knew to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. May God bless you through this time of bereavement. Rosalind N.

“ Dan was there at one of the worse times in my life..when my 2 yrs old son fell out the window from second floor on the concrete, if it wasn't for his guidance & emotional help at that time, I wasn't able to pull myself back together.. god sent his angels at that time and he was miraculously fine but I'll never forget Dan's being there at that time ... there are moments in your life you never forget any kind of support .. Thank you Dan.. Rest In Peace my dear neighbor 🙏
