

Danilo Sanon

August 2, 1952 - July 5, 2022

Danilo Sanon was born on August 2, 1952, to his mother, Mercian Charles, and father, Edner Sanon, in Baradesas Haiti. Danilo Sanon was raised and went to school in Port o Prince. Danilo Sanon was passionate about helping people and worked at City Hall, assisting people in getting their passports. He was the oldest of three, sister Majalie Sanon-Lamarre, brother Monjule Aycientte brother Israeli Beauvil. As a young man, he fell in love with serving God and dedicated his life to spreading the word of God in a country that was against such things. In one service he attended, he met a young lady Viergina Marclein who was just as in love with God as he was; one would sing, the other would preach the word what a combination! They were married before the Lord on March 27, 1976, and every marriage comes with trials and tribulations. Even then, both overcame all obstacles and have been married for 46 years. He is survived by three beautiful and intelligent daughters, Gemima St Victor, Dany Naomi Sanon-Lyndsey, Geraldine Virilus, and one very handsome and mighty son, Hiram Samuel Sanon. He was the grandfather of 7 grandchildren and uncle to several nieces and nephews. He was a brother-in-law, spiritual father/brother, cousin, worship leader, and Pastor to many people. My father was a faithful servant of the Lord, going wherever God sent him, in obedience, he was there! He became a pillar in many ministries in Georgia, as he helped bring souls to the kingdom of God thru many Pastors in the surrounding areas. The one thing I can say about my father is he loved to welcome the presence of the Lord with praise and worship! So let us not forget the works of my father and what he stood for: to spread the gospel of Jesus Christ and to worship him in spirit and in truth. As a reminder from him: It's never too late to start a relationship with God.

Rev. Sanon was born on August 2, 1952 in Barradere, Haiti, and he was a minister in Haiti.
