“ Binnie and Dennie, how blessed to be able to have this beautiful lady so long to offer guidance and nurturing to you both. We only had her in our lives for a short period, but loved her much too. Our hope for you both is that your memories of Darcee and your strong faith will help you find peace that only Jesus can bring at this time.

She has left us, but gone to her eternal life in heaven and we can't feel sad for her in that regard. As long as we remember, she remains part of us.

Please know our hearts are heavy for those she leaves, but rejoice for her as she has her reward in Jesus.

When we think of you, you will be lifted in prayer - asking comfort and peace. God's blessings - be well.

“ *Darcee was so enjoyable to be with on our Silvertone concerts and trips. I always remember when we lost our silver sequins off our tops-she would pick them up and stick them on her face and look so funny. What a wonderful Mom you had and to keep on keeping on was inspiring to so many. prayerfully remembering family in prayer

“ Dear Binnie, I am just so very sorry for your loss. How fortunate that you have had this special person in your life for such a long time. As I read her obituary and considered the snapshot of family and community that are her legacy, I can only imagine the vast archive of precious memories and special moments you will treasure of times you have spent with her in your lifetime. It is so hard to lose someone we love and who has been an integral part of our lives. Your family will be in my prayers as you grieve your loss together. Please do not hesitate to let me know if there is anything I can do to ease your burden during this time.
