“ Fran and I are grateful that we were able to share time with you and Dave. The two of you were a delight to be with. We can't be with you today but know that our hearts and thoughts are with you.

“ David (and Joyce) were the first folks my wife and I met as we moved our young family from Michigan to Atlanta, GA in July 1997. From that point on we became close cul-de-sac neighbors for 25 years. Gabbing in the street outside, picking up each other's mail during vacations, sharing stories from our past, etc. It was magical. He loved to mow the lawn and work incessantly on his landscape. Not seeing him out on his deck at his grill will be a hard adjustment. I enjoyed singing with him above and behind me in Sugarloaf UMC choir for many years. He is a hero - a US Navy veteran - thank you for your service, sailor. Godspeed David Cowart. A life well lived, loving father, son, spouse, and neighbor. Above all, a child of God and follower of Jesus Christ.
