“ Omg Crocker. Thank can't believe you're gone. We saw you right before you went home, and I gave you one last hug before your departure from this world. You always made me smile, and I'll miss you every time I go out on the patio at Parma...

“ I’ve known David for many years both as a friend and a co worker. We had many laughs together and shared fun times. He never had a bad thing to say of anyone. He was kind, thoughtful and soft spoken. Gone to soon! May he Rest In Peace and his memories be a blessing to all who knew him. 🙏🇺🇸
