“ Dear Pat and Family

I was so saddened to hear of the loss of your husband and father. I know you will dearly miss him being a part of your life journey. I remember you always speaking of his presence as a strong support to both of you. I pray that you will be of strong heart during these trying times. May your wonderful memories carry you through and God shower you with strength to heal your hearts.

Love, Ruth

“ Dear Pat and family,

I wish to express my sympathy and condolence in the loss of David. He was indeed a loving husband and gentleman. We were fortunate to have been friends when you lived in San Jose. We always had good times together, lots of fun and laughter. May God grant you strength and faith, as you proceed on your journey. Remember that David will be with you in the spirit always.

Our love, Nancy and Victor Wright
