“ My heart is heavy for our loss of Dawn P. I loved her laughter. Dawn taught me to laugh at myself. Her faith was gigantic and it spread to others. She taught me to trust God. Dawn loved unconditionally and forgave easily. She taught me to forgive. She was always a ray of sunshine and had an infectious positive attitude. She taught me to encourage others. She will be missed here, but I know she's dancing on streets of gold in the arms of the Lion of Judah.
