“ Paul and Eden, our thoughts and prayers go out to you at this sad time. Dayle was a true and loyal friend and I will miss just knowing she is around. She was always there to help ease new people into her chosen field. To me, one of her greatest gifts to our profession was the way she welcomed new people into an organization and treated them as a special and welcomed guest instead of new competition. I will always miss her warm smile , gracious demeanor, and enthusiasm with which she took on each new challenge, or event.

Warmest Regards,

Robert Oliver and family.
