“ Some of best early memories come from the wonderful humor of Joe Carter. I shall never forget him- nor his delight in scaring us in the park. Rest in peace Joe, and pray for all of us, especially Helen's friends who love you dearly.

“ Dear Carol and Family,
Our condolences and prayers of comfort go out to you and your family at this sad time.
We are very saddened to hear of Joe's passing. He was a wonderful person and we will always remember him fondly. He always had such a contagious smile.
May your many memories of Joe help to sustain you and your family, at this most difficult time.
"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." Psalm 34:18

“ Carolyn,
I am confident that Joe is rejoicing in heaven and fellowshiping with The King while we grieve and remember the wonderful memories he left for us. We are lifting you, the girls, and your extended family up to God to supply your needs as you all experience this loss and void. Hugs and love to you all from your cousins in Louisiana.

“ I promised, once upon a time, to NEVER give his eulogy. He was worried that I would be too honest! I won't ever forget all of the wonderful, weird Uncle moments, and wish I could be there. Much love to Aunt Carol and all of the cousins....
