“ As a child I always looked up and admired my cousin Debbie. She was always so caring and fun to be with. We didn't see much of each other lately but she was still very special to me. I will miss you sweet Debbie.

I have been going to the salon that Debi shared with Naila and Esther for many years. I never once saw Debi that she didn't have a smile and a happy disposition. Debi and her family have been in my prayers though her illness. My prayers to all of you as you go through this difficult time. Jackie Hanner

Debi was my mother's step-sister. She was therefore: My younger aunt. The Campbells were a major part of my life to age 8 when my family moved away. I do not recall seeing Debi again until 1977, when she accompanied my sister and me on a drive to Detroit airport. I remember her intelligence, wit, confidence, as she told me stories of her life in route. Never saw or talked to her again.

Farewell my mother's sister. R.I.P.
