

Debra "Deb" Wilson

January 10, 2015

Debra "Deb" Wilson, 62, of Buford, Georgia, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, January 10, 2015 due to complications from kidney disease.

She was born in Florissant, Missouri and is survived by her husband, Steve Wilson; her son and daughter-in-law David and Lara Sadowski; daughter Stacy Forister and her significant other Robert Blanton; grandson Derik Sadowski; father and stepmother Harold and Cinda Varvel; siblings Hal Varvel, Stanley Varvel, Lori Hammonds, Steve Crowell, Dan Crowell and Kimberly Crone; and "The Zoo" - Riley, Honey, Peach, Rocky and Rambo. She was preceded in death by her mother and stepfather Bonnie and Dale Crowell and grandmother Nina Winkle.

Her memorial service will be Friday, January 16, 2015 at Flanigan Funeral Home, 4400 S. Lee Street, Buford, Georgia 30518. Visitation will be held at 10:00 am, and the chapel memorial service will follow at 11:00 am.

Deb moved to Buford from her hometown to be part of her one and only grandson's life. She loved her family, her friends, her Facebook friends, and her animals. One of the roles she cherished the most was taking care of her Steve and their home together. She was a very kind-hearted, giving person and would do anything for anyone. Everyone who knew her adored her. She loved life and lived each day to the fullest. A more wonderful person you will never meet.

Deb, Mom, Meme ... we will all miss you so much!

“ Debbie's sudden passing left me with shock and disbelief even though I knew of her battle with the kidney disease and her being on dialysis. Our hearts our saddened so deeply. Debbie was like a mother to me. She took me in and gave me a home at age 13. She gave me the experience to feel what a family is supposed to be like. I am forever grateful for that. I have fond memories of her and am privileged to have known such a beautiful and kind hearted soul. She will be missed by many. My heart goes out to Steve, Dave, Stacy and all the other family members. <3 <3 <3

“ My heart dropped when I heard the news. My deepest sympathy to her husband Steve and family. Words are never enough to express or help the pain you are going through..Deb was a loving gentle person whom brightened up many lives. I am glad to have had the pleasure of having her in my life as a dear friend...Why God takes such gentle hearts so early I do not understand...But he has a bright angle in heaven . She will remain in all the hearts she touched forever. May God bless us all with our grief and healing. Especially to her beloved husband and children. Rest peacefully Deb, you sweet soul. “ I dont know how to write this, for my sweetest friend Deb....my first thoughts are to the family... yet how do you comfort them when your heart is in pieces ... sending every vibe of love i can conjurer. the love for Deb is so strong and obvious and overwhelming you all can be nothing but proud ...she was literally loved around the world! I am so privilaged to have known her through the years, especially resent years we were the traveling duo...always to met up with wonderful friends that loved her as well. ya know, im already 'talking' to her through-out the day...she seems closer to me than ever, and always will. My prayers are for the family and friend, she didnt leave behind, she just said 'see you all latter, Ive graduated' [2015] God bless and lets all keep her spirit alive...if we can keep up! peace my bff Deb, forever and always.... now the rose. c
