“ My heart remembers the fondest moments. Thank you for sharing yours Ramel. It’s been a long time. However, distance will never separate the spirit from man. It brings tears to my soul to witness your homecoming and it also reminded me how much I dearly loved you and the family. You would literally do the things your siblings recalled at the alter. Your love for all things were a gift that wrapped itself.

My condolences to the entire Green family, friends and those he had impacted throughout his journey in this lifetime.
