Diane's family was her world from crocheting them warm things to always listening to their every thought, Diane was always ready with a warm hug, "get whatever you want out of the fridge" and a "my soaps are on, hush". We will miss hearing her yell at the TV during the Braves game and at John to get out of the deviled eggs at Thanksgiving. She was a force to be reckoned with and fought our battles with us, always by our side. The world is a little colder, a little less bright and a lot more boring without you. Thank you for making each of us feel important and reminding us that we matter. Thank you for being a friend.

A Funeral Service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 11, 2025 in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home with Pastor Tim Campbell officiating. “ Dearest Memaw, you were always so warm, always so welcome and accepting. You loved us all for who we actually are and made us know it. From sitting on your lap as a tiny tot to watching my own children sit on your lap you never once changed. Always gave us undivided attention. You listened, you cherished, you taught us what love is. I know this isn't goodbye it's only see you later but it doesn't hurt any less. You are a treasure and I'm blessed to have you as my Memaw. Missing you hurts so much, but every single memory with you is a happy one full of laughter, love, and a dash of spice and sass. You also taught us all to be strong, independent, and charismatic about who we are. Thank you for every moment. May you rest well and watch us all with the pride you held for us in life. Love you.
