“ I worked with Diane for many years and we have been friends for many, many more. I learned so much from her during that time and I will always cherish the family we became all working at Freightliner. Much love to Tony, and family during this time.

“ Diane had the gift of making everyone's most difficult task much easier and more professional in appearance and content. Far more important she possessed the rare gift of being very positive in a work environment that was not necessarily always positive. It has been many years since I enjoyed her contributions in an office setting but her contributions are unforgettable
